

UPGRADE YOUR TOILET TODAY!

Save water and money with every flush

BOULDER COUNTY
SUSTAINABILITY

FLUSH LESS WATER AND SAVE MORE WITH A HIGH-EFFICIENCY TOILET UPGRADE!

Save thousands of gallons of water a year and reduce your water bill by up to $100 annually. Upgrade Today!

- A maximum of 1 Free High-Efficiency toilet and installation for qualifying households.
- Must be part of a verifiable and pre-existing income-qualified program (See on back for further details).
- Limited number of toilets: First come, first served!

LIMIT OF
1 PER HOUSEHOLD

For More Information:

Visit: <http://BoulderCountySustainability.org>

Call: (720) 564-2724

CENTER FOR
ReSource Conservation

Program brought to you by Boulder County Office of Sustainability in partnership with the local nonprofit, Center for ReSource Conservation

Income-Qualified High-Efficiency Toilet Upgrade Program

SEE IF YOU QUALIFY

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Must NOT have received a toilet through this program with Center for ReSource Conservation any year previously.
2. Must be replacing functioning toilet(s) that use(s) 1.6 gallons per flush or more.
3. Must verify income qualification through participation in Longs Peak Energy Conservation Weatherization Program or via Boulder County Sustainability (720-564-2724).
4. Maximum of one (1) toilet per residence, no exceptions.
5. Must meet the ALL four measurement specifications detailed in the online application form.
6. The OWNER of the property must sign the program waiver prior to installation.

For More Information:

Visit: <http://BoulderCountySustainability.org>

Call: (720) 564-2724

Center for ReSource Conservation is a nonprofit dedicated to helping people conserve water, energy, and building materials. With 40 years of experience, our programs make it easy to save money and resources.

CENTER FOR
ReSource Conservation

(303) 999-3824

www.conservationcenter.org